

Full Variation Licence Application: Mauls Wine and Cheese Bar

The Licensing Authority has received a Full Variation Licence application for: Mauls Wine and Cheese Bar, 3 Fish Row, Salisbury, SP1 1EX

The application is for the following licensable activities: Removal of a number of the premises licence conditions in Annex 2B and the addition of licensable activities on a Monday. (See attached application)

I have attached the current premises licence and outside plan for you to view along with the variation application.

Please note: Under the Licensing Act 2003 and the Deregulations Act 2015, live amplified music or playing of recorded music does not require a licence for premises authorised to sell alcohol for consumption on the premises (included only in the area covered for on sales on the licence plan) provided that the audience does not exceed 500 between 8am – 11pm.

Any written representations against/for the application must be received in writing no later than: 9th July 2022

Guidance on making representation can be found following this link:
