ANNEX B

SAFEGUARDING PUBLIC MONEY – REPEAL OF SECTION 150(5) OF LGA 1972

Following the repeal of Section 150(5) of the Local Government Act 1972, local councils in England may safely take advantage of modern payments methods while protecting the public assets in their care, through the application of the Joint Practitioners Advisory Group Paper (JPAG Issue 20120725) entitled Safeguarding Public Money - A framework to safeguard public money for local councils in England. This Paper is detailed in the National Association of Local Councils' (NALC's) The Good Councillors' Guide under Section 7 - Rules for Dealing with Public Money.

In accordance with the guidance provided in JPAG Issue 20120725, local councils, through the roles and responsibilities of members, must have in place safe and efficient arrangements to safeguard public money (clause 15), and review regularly the effectiveness of their arrangements (clause 14). Councils must arrange for:

- the proper administration of their financial affairs by ensuring that controls over money are embedded in Standing Orders and Financial Regulations, and
- establish an officer as holding responsibility for those affairs, such as the RFO.

Councils may delegate the role of protecting money to individuals, for example to the Clerk or the RFO, however legal responsibility cannot be delegated so it remains with the council and its members.

The requirement under the repealed Section 150(5) of the LGA, as stated under clause 10 of the guidance, that 'every cheque or other order for the payment of money shall be signed by two members of the council' remains good practice although it is no longer law. Therefore, Councils must put in place safe and efficient arrangements in accordance with the clause 15 of the JPAG guidance. Such arrangements must include:

- councils approving every bank mandate,
- holding a list of authorised signatures for each account,
- determining the limits of authority for each account signature, and
- determining the limits of authority for any amendments to mandates.
